

Open with prayer for God's wisdom to be given.

Perhaps you've seen in television shows or movies a room that opens to a secret passageway. We think we know what we see is all there is to a room. There is nothing new, interesting, and we are sure the room holds nothing extraordinary. Then, a character in the story finds a hidden lever or a hidden point to press, and what appears to be a bookcase or wall actually opens. We believe there is nothing new to find in life, nothing left of any great interest. We can convince ourselves there is nothing more to the purpose of life. We can stump ourselves. Almighty God, however, wants us to know the truth. God tells us there is much more, and He gives us the way to find it. When we put our faith in God, what we think is hidden is revealed – an amazing, beautiful world we did not know existed.

Read Isaiah 40:21-31.

Discuss with your family or think and pray on your own: Though God reveals more than enough to change and save us, can you live His way? Do you need all the answers you want about this wondrous life before living it? What does that mean for you right now?

Close with prayer in thanksgiving to God.
